

Mini Flip Fold Album

By Robin Messenheimer after a pattern for a larger album by Paula Goff

Supplies: One 12" square sheet Card Stock.

One 12" square sheet Stampin' Up! Designer Series Paper.

Ribbon for tying album together (24" - 28", depending on the ribbon used).

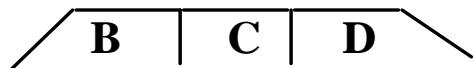

Punches and scraps to decorate pages. There will be sufficient designer paper left to decorate the inside pages.

Instructions: Cut and score card stock and paper as shown. Fold and press all scored lines with bone folder.

Adhere the pieces of Designer Series Paper to the front and back of each of the side flaps of piece A as follows:

- Adhere one piece to the outside of the left flap with the inside edge butting up against the fold line at 1-3/4".
- Adhere one piece to the other side of the left flap and the first piece of paper, aligning the outside edges with the first piece of paper.
- Repeat with the right flap of piece A.

- Adhere the back of piece C to the middle section of piece A.
- Fold the inside flaps in towards the center of piece C.
- Fold the right outside flap in towards piece D.
- Fold the left outside flap in towards piece B.
- Fold piece D over piece C.
- Fold piece B over piece D.
- Fold the right side of piece A over the inside grouping.
- Fold the left side of piece A over the entire album.

Decorate the inside "pages" of the album with mats for photos, being sure to leave some plain blank paper or card stock for journaling. Construct a decorative layer for the front cover.

Adhere the ribbon to the front of the album, then adhere the decorative layer over the ribbon.

Tie a bow at the right to secure the album.
