

Double Dutch Door Fun Fold Card

By Robin Messenheimer 2024—Images (c) Stampin' Up

This is an “oldie-but-goodie” fun fold card. I’ve seen it with several names over the years. But my favorite is, “Double Dutch Door.” It’s “double” because this card has two folds: There’s a top flap fold and a bottom gate fold. But it’s not a difficult card to make at all!

What you’ll need:

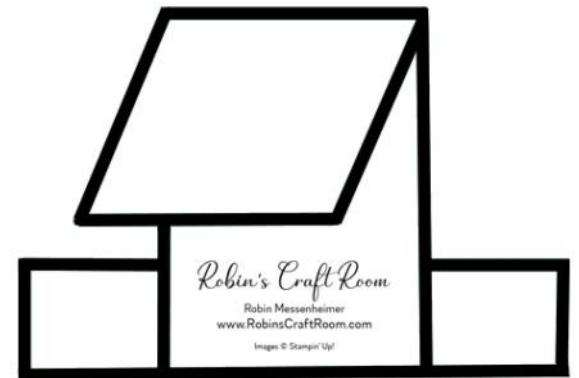

- Cardstock: 9” x 4-1/8”, scored at 5-1/2”
2” x 8-1/2”, scored at 2-1/8” from each short end
- Designer Series Paper: 3-1/4” x 3-7/8” (for top half of card)
1-3/4” x 1-7/8” (2 pieces) for small bottom flaps
- Inside Cardstock: 3-7/8” x 5-1/4” (Basic White or Very Vanilla, to coordinate)
- Die-cut or punched element for bottom of top flap

Basic Supplies: Bone Folder, adhesives

The Quick and Easy Directions. There directions almost don’t need a sketch at all. But I’ve provided one to make these directions even easier!

1. Fold and score the top flap of the card base.
2. Fold and score the flaps on the 2” strip.
3. Adhere the center of strip to the bottom back of card.
4. Adhere Designer Paper to the top flap and the small square flaps on the bottom strip.
5. Adhere a decorative element to the bottom of the top flap, to overlap the small square flaps on the bottom.
6. Stamp a sentiment on the white/vanilla cardstock and adhere it to the inside of the card.

That’s all there is to it!

A description of my three sample cards are on the next page!
